

The Shabbos Helpers Guide

Every job below turns you into a somebody — not "cut the paper towels," but The Paper Towel Cutter. Pick your title, own your job, and watch the house turn into Shabbos because of you.

Getting the house ready

The Toy Rescuer

Clear the floors so the whole house looks like Shabbos

The Couch Commander

Pillows straight, seforim stacked, magazines away

The Shoe Shiner

Line up everyone's Shabbos shoes, shined and ready

The Flower Arranger

Trim the stems and arrange the Shabbos flowers

The Candle Captain

Set up the leichter and lay out the matches

In the kitchen

The Challah Helper

Braid, egg-wash, and sprinkle the seeds

The Dip Chooser

Pick this week's dips and get them into their bowls

The Salad Builder

Wash, tear, and build the Shabbos salad

The Paper Towel Cutter

Pre-cut the paper towels before Shabbos comes in

The Fridge Scout

Make sure the drinks and grape juice are cold and ready

At the table & beyond

The Table Setter

White tablecloth, best dishes, a seat for everyone

The Napkin Folder

Fancy folds strongly encouraged

The Zemer Picker

Choose one zemer to lead at the seudah

The Dvar Torah Sayer

Prepare one thing on the parsha to share

The Havdalah Holder

Hold the candle high!

For parents: let each child pick (or draw) their jobs on a card and tick them off as they go — and know what motivates your child: finished jobs might earn first pick of the Shabbos treats, or the week's magazine. Jobs with a title get done with pride.

My Shabbos Jobs

Write your jobs for this week, then check each box when it's done. All boxes checked = you made Shabbos happen.

My name: _____ Parshas: _____

- ☐ This week I am The _____
- ☐ ...and The _____
- ☐ ...and The _____
- ☐ Bonus job: _____

After Shabbos: did you do your commitment? Ask a parent to open your family page and tap "✓ I did it!" — your streak grows and the whole shul's numbers go up.

This counts for the Elul Shabbos Project!

If your commitment is "Spend 15 minutes helping prepare for Shabbos" — two jobs from this guide and you've done it. Signed up yet? Every signup sends $5 to Tomchei Shabbos, every check-in adds $1, and families where everyone checks in enter the weekly pizza raffle. → shabboswithadas.com
